

Box Modeling - Intersection

Intersection of objects results in a new object that contains only the overlapping volume of the original objects.

- In this example, the intersection of the two cubes is highlighted in green.

